ATTORNEY DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF WAIVER OF ADMISSION FEE

- 1.) I am an attorney in good standing seeking admission to the Eastern District of Wisconsin District Court. I submit this declaration to request waiver of the $211 fee ordinarily required as payment for admission to practice before this court.
- 2.) I seek admission because I am pursuing a single case in the Eastern District in which I represent a civil rights plaintiff on a pro bono basis.
- 3.) I work as part of a not-for-profit organization.
- 4.) The only form of litigation that I currently practice is of the type represented by this action, that is, pro bono civil rights work on behalf of the indigent and underserved.
- 5.) The nature of my work requires admission before many different courts nationwide. As a result, payment of local admission fees in all courts in which I practice would pose a substantial economic obstacle to continuation of my pro bono practice on behalf of underserved individuals.
- 6.) I am not seeking admission to the Eastern District of Wisconsin for purpose of any commercial gain, nor do I anticipate any such gain given the nature of my practice and the particular reason I seek admission to this Court.

7.) For these reasons, I humbly request that this Court waive the admission fee typically required to practice and appear in this District.

Submitted under penalty of perjury.
